Supply Chain Essentials: A Leadership Compass for the Current Times & Beyond

COVID-19, conflict in Ukraine and Russia, and the climate-change vagaries are impacting supply chains in ways that no organization, industry, or economy was ever prepared for. More than ever before, the need for understanding supply chain essentials, and how reliable, responsive, resilient and responsible supply chains should be designed and sustained are deemed as fundamental to leading and navigating through the current times and beyond.

Join us as our keynote speaker, Kingshuk Sinha, will focus on:

- What are the main reasons the supply chain issues continue?
- Inflation due to supply chain issues, but how does labor shortage roll into that?
- How do we fix it and will it ever be the same again?
- The short and long term affects to the retail real estate industry
- What are the risks that directly impact our industry if supply chain issues continue?
- And more....
