

Legislative Review and Election Preview: Managing Minnesota's Political Environment In 2022-2023

Your advocacy makes a difference. Join us as our notable guest speakers cover the issues and challenges that face YOU and the Minnesota commercial real estate industry now and into 2023. Our speakers will provide a summary of the 2022 legislative session, including action and inaction on MSCA legislative priorities. This summary will inform members of how the 2022 legislature's actions will impact the retail real estate industry. The presentation will also provide a preview of upcoming federal and state elections and potential impacts to the retail real estate industry, MSCA and its' members. Finally, they will preview the 2023 Session, the Governor and Legislature's roles in adopting a biennial budget, and the potential to address unfinished business from the 2022 session, including several MSCA legislative priorities such as transportation and tax relief.
